

Media Release

For Immediate Release

RDC ATHLETICS UPDATE

Red Deer, June 5th, 2009

The Red Deer College KINGS VOLLEYBALL Team is proud to announce its recruiting class for the 2009-2010 season. This group of 7 incoming student-athletes will join the 8 returning members of last year's team which includes: Chris Wowchuk, Mitch Irvine, Jeremy Stubler, Chris Gilbert, Darren Dornstauder, Brandon Papp, Andy Inglis and Trever Gillis. The recruiting class is as follows:

TAYLOR HUNT

Taylor is a 6'5" outside hitter from Brooklin, Ontario. He was a standout first year starter at the University of Manitoba two seasons ago but has taken some time away from the sport since then. He is transferring into the Faculty of Kinesiology and Sport Studies at RDC and is looking forward to playing with two former teammates in Jeremy Stubler and Chris Wowchuk. Taylor is an extremely gifted athlete who can change the outcome of a match with his play. He will likely be playing with Team Ontario at the Canada Summer Games in PEI this August.

TUCKER LEINWEBER

Tucker is a 6'2" passing power hitter from Acme, Alberta. He was a starting left side for the Canuck Club team that finished 4th at the U18 Nationals last month. He is currently a member of the U19 Alberta Provincial Team that will compete at NTCC's in Kelowna in July.

Tucker is a tremendous passer and a very strong jumper and has proved to be a very consistently strong performer.

BOSTON MARIS

Boston is a 6'3" middle/ outside from Edson, Alberta. He was a member of the NAVC Bears team that finished 5th at U18 Nationals. He is also currently a teammate of Tucker's on the U19 Provincial Team. Boston is a good jumper with a fast arm and has a great work ethic.

MATT SAUNDERS

Matt is a 6'1" libero from Calgary, Alberta. He was the libero on the same Canuck team that finished 4th at U18 Nationals. Matt was the team captain for his Lord Beaverbrook High School Team and his leadership skills are noticeable on the court. Matt is a strong passer and defender and has a very good court presence.

DALLAS SNIDER

Dallas is a 6'0" libero from Lindsay Thurber Comprehensive High School in Red Deer. He was also a team captain with his high school team and is a proven leader on the court. Dallas was the libero for the U18 CAKVC team this past club season and is an extremely hard worker and skilled libero.

DAVID KING

David is a 6'3" middle/ outside from Stettler, Alberta. He is a great all-around athlete with a strong work ethic. He was the team captain and starting left side on both his high school team and the U18 CAKVC team this past season.

DARCEE FROESE

Darcee is a 6'3" setter from Lindsay Thurber Comprehensive High School in Red Deer. He has returned home to Red Deer after completing his first year of Engineering at Calvin College in Michigan this past year. Darcee is a good athlete and very bright kid who is capable of pushing Chris Gilbert on a daily basis.

Aaron Schulha and the rest of the RDC Kings coaching staff want to thank these athletes for their commitment to the RDC Volleyball Program and are very much looking forward to the upcoming season.

-30-

About RDC: RDC has served the needs of students and the community for close to half a century. With more than 75 programs to choose from, we pride ourselves on providing a practical education, in a genuine and sustainable learning environment. Our 20,000 students are at the core of everything we do. RDC – when you get here you understand.

For more information on RDC, please visit our website: www.rdc.ab.ca

For additional information, contact:

Gord Inglis, Director of Athletics
403.342-3242