

Media Release

For Immediate Release

RDC ATHLETICS UPDATE

Red Deer, June 22, 2009

ONE OF KINGS VOLLEYBALL'S OWN NAMED TO JUNIOR NATIONAL TEAM

Mitch Irvine, Kings Volleyball's 08-09 season MVP, CCAA All Canadian, ACAC Volleyball Rookie of the Year, and RDC Athletics Male Athlete of the Year, has been selected as a member of the Junior National Volleyball team. The team will compete in the 2009 FIBB Junior (U21) Men's World championship July 31-August 9 in Pune, India.

The purpose of the Junior National Team Program is to identify, select and train a group of young athletes who have future Senior National Team potential and offer them the opportunity to train and represent Canada in international competition at an earlier age.

-30-

About RDC: RDC has served the needs of students and the community for close to half a century. With more than 75 programs to choose from, we pride ourselves on providing a practical education, in a genuine and sustainable learning environment. Our 20,000 students are at the core of everything we do. RDC – when you get here you understand.

For more information on RDC, please visit our website: www.rdc.ab.ca

For additional information, contact:

Gord Inglis, Director of Athletics
403.342-3424