

Media Release

For Immediate Release

RDC ATHLETICS UPDATE

Red Deer, December 8th, 2008

1. Upcoming Athletic Events:

No upcoming Home Events to report. ACAC Season resumes Jan. 9, 2009

Watch for a Mid-Season Update on all of our teams later this week!

2. Booster Juice RDC Athlete of the Week:

Women: Ashley Blaquiere, Hockey

Hometown: Edam, SK

Year/Program: 1st Yr/ Education

Ashley Blaquiere- Ashley is in her first year of Bachelor of Education at RDC. Ashley has had an impressive first half of season in the ACAC with 8 assists and 1 goal in 11 games. She scored her first ACAC goal in Friday's 4 to 3 loss against SAIT and was selected Game MVP. Her leadership and determination helped the Queens come back from a 4 to 1 deficit after 1 period of play, almost taking the game into overtime.

3. Last Week's Results

Queens Hockey – League Play
Make-up game vs. SAIT – December 5, 2008	RDC 3 – SAIT 4

- ACAC Athlete of the Week Release attached
- ACAC Standings attached

-30-

About RDC: RDC has served the needs of students and the community for close to half a century. With more than 75 programs to choose from, we pride ourselves on providing a practical education, in a genuine and sustainable learning environment. Our 20,000 students are at the core of everything we do. RDC – when you get here you understand.

For more information on RDC, please visit our website: www.rdc.ab.ca

For additional information, contact:

Keith Hansen, Director of Athletics
403.342-3497