5. Coaches' Comments

Scott Bergdahl, Golf

We have finally arrived! The men's and ladies' golf teams placed second at this weekend's regional tournament at the Raven Crest Golf Club in Edmonton. After an average first day team score and 16 strokes back of first place NAIT, the men's team played very well in the second and final round of the tournament making up 10 strokes and finishing second.

Jordan Krulicki shot a one under par two day total to take the men's overall individual title. The ladies team was led by Paulina Johnson who shot a 95/99.

We look forward to hosting the ACAC Conference Championships at RiverBend Golf Course Sept. 28 & 29.

Sean Noble, Curling

We now have 6 men and 7 women players expressing interest in trying out for the RDC Curling teams (Men's, Women's and Mixed). The teams will be playing locally at the Red Deer Curling Club (Men's and Women's on Thursday nights, Mixed on Monday nights). Their first ACAC bonspiel will be Nov.16-18 at Augustana.

Aaron Schulha, Kings Volleyball

No matches this week. The Challenge Cup is coming up October 5-7.

Talbot Walton, Queens Volleyball

Queens volleyball is starting off a very exciting week. The team will be hosting Hokusho University from Japan for the week; for more information please contact Talbot at 342-3243 or check the RDC athletics website.

Brian Stackhouse, Cross-Country Running

We plan to have complete teams of at least four and ideally at least six for the ACAC Championships, Oct. 20 in Edmonton and the CCAA Open Championship Nov. 10 in Grande Prairie.

Rob Weddell, Queens Hockey

QH Played the U of A Pandas (CIS National Champions) last week. The girls played well but were no match for Canada's best University players, losing 5 to 0. One of our former Queens, Laura Salomons scored on us. The Queens have 2 other graduates playing for U of A: Amy Young and Kathleen Keen. QH will be preparing for a weekend tournament at NAIT.

Dawn Smyth, Queens Basketball

This week we play/host the pre-season tournament. We are looking forward to playing at home and learning more as we move through the pre-season.
