2. Moxie's Classic Grill RDC Athlete of the Week

Men: Cameron Krejci, Curling

Hometown: Red Deer, AB
Year/Program: 1st Yr/Bachelor of Science

Cameron is Lead of the RDC Men's Curling team. He started each end by placing his rocks in the correct spots, causing difficulties for the opponent, and a great foundation for his teammates to build on. He followed up with outstanding judgment of weight, communication, and brushing of his teammates' rocks – all attributes of an all-star. Cameron led the Men's Team in opening the season with a perfect record of 6 wins, 0 losses, putting them in first place in their division.

Women: Brittney Raab, Curling

Hometown: Red Deer, AB
 Year/Program: 1st Year, Practical Nursing

Brittney is Lead of the RDC Mixed Curling Team. She started each end by placing her rocks in the correct spots, causing difficulties for the opponent, and a great foundation for her teammates to build on. She followed up with outstanding judgment of weight, communication, and brushing of her teammates' rocks – all attributes of an all-star. Brittney led the Mixed Team in opening the season with a record of 5 wins, 1 loss, putting them in first place in their division.

4. Coaches' Comments

Rob Weddell, Queens Hockey

QH is in a Bye week. We will be hosting The Edge Hockey Academy out of Calgary in a non-conference game Thursday Night. We played them 4 weeks ago and beat them 4 to 3.

Aaron Schulha, Kings Volleyball

Kings Volleyball has a huge weekend vs. Briercrest coming up. We play out at Rocky Mountain House on Friday as the feature match for the 2A High School Volleyball Provincial Championships at 7:30 and we are back at RDC on Saturday afternoon following the Queens match. We currently sit tied for first in the ACAC South Division with a 6-2 record so this weekend will be huge in determining who will finish first in the division at Christmas and with that, who will host the Conference Championships in February.

Eldon Raab, Curling

A great weekend for the RDC curling teams. Playing the 1st of two provincial qualifiers in Leduc this past weekend. The second round of qualifiers are in Grande Prairie (Jan.29-30-31), the top 4 of the three divisions will participate in Provincial Championships in Camrose Feb.26-27-28.
