

Subway® restaurants ACAC Athletes of the Week

February 23–March 1, 2009

Jessica Clutton Red Deer College Women's Volleyball

The Queens needed that consistent, high level of play this weekend in order to win the ACAC Conference Championship. They had to look no further than Jessica Clutton to provide a physical presence at the net. Jessica finished the weekend with 40 kills, 35 digs, and 5 blocks. "It was a whole team effort this weekend, but the play of Jessica was unmatched by any other right side hitter in the tournament", said coach Walton. Great weekend Jessica!

A second year student from Innisfail, Alberta, Jessica is enrolled in Education at Red Deer College.

RDC Athletics

Patricia Wells Concordia University College of Alberta Women's Basketball

Patricia Wells had a break-out series against the SAIT Trojans in the ACAC Quarter Final best of three series scoring 47 points over the three games and posting a double-double performance on the road with 17 points and 10 rebounds. PJ managed to hit 8 three point shots over the course of the game. Throughout the season PJ, who has been among the leaders in three point shooting percentage, made three's and came through in a clutch playoff performance.

A first year student from Edmonton, Alberta, Patricia is enrolled in Arts at Concordia University College of Alberta.

Dustin Kimber Mount Royal College Men's Hockey

Cougar men's hockey rookie, Dustin Kimber showed skill and poise on the ice this past weekend that rival, even veteran players of this league. Although the Mount Royal Cougars were scoreless in their game against NAIT Friday night, Kimber maintained composure and continued to play a strong game. Saturday had a much different outcome as the Cougars defeated their northern rivals 4-1. Dustin contributed half of those goals and continued to be a positive force on and off the ice.

Dustin is in his first year of Physical Education at Mount Royal and is from Lundar, Manitoba.

Chris Womack MacEwan College Men's Volleyball

What a weekend for third year, captain Chris Womack. Coming in ranked # 3 in Alberta, MacEwan College faced off against the # 6 seed, Red Deer College. Chris started strong with 3 stuff blocks against Red Deer power house, Mitch Irvine, setting the tone for the weekend. Womack lead the team through three incredible matches: Red Deer in the quarters, Medicine Hat in the semis and Mount Royal in the final. Consistently blazing aces and coming up with clutch kills, Chris was named the tournament MVP. Over the weekend, Womack had 49 kills, 7 blocks and 17 digs.

A third year student from Drayton Valley, Alberta, Chris is enrolled in Arts at MacEwan College.

For more information and the results from this past weekend, please visit:

www.acac.ab.ca

