

Subway® restaurants ACAC Athletes of the Week

November 24 - 30, 2008

Cailin Lissel
CUCA
Women's Basketball

Cailin Lissel helped lead the Concordia Thunder to a two game sweep of cross-town rivals, NAIT Oaks this past weekend. On Friday, Cailin posted 17 points in a 58-49 win and on Saturday, Cailin lead all scorers with 32 points, 6 rebounds and 5 assists in the Thunder's 84-55 win over the Oaks.

A fourth year student from Hinton, Alberta, Caitlin is currently enrolled in Arts at Concordia University College of Alberta.

Morgan Rauser
Red Deer College
Women's Basketball

Morgan Rauser had a great finish this past weekend against Briercrest College. On Friday, Morgan was instrumental in securing 13 rebounds and scoring 13 points in her first double/double of the year. Morgan was also very physical and was sent to the free throw line 14 times during the game. She finished the game Saturday with her 2nd double/double scoring 13 points, and ripping down 14 rebounds. She helped the Queens take their first win against Briercrest.

A first year student from Wetaskiwin, Alberta, Morgan is currently enrolled in Education at Red Deer College.

RDC Athletics

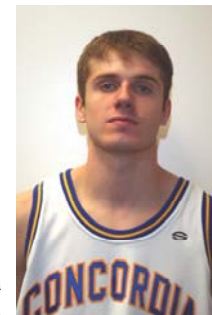

Brett Pepler
NAIT
Men's Hockey

Brett Pepler, a third-year business student from Rhein, SK, had his name all over the score sheet in the Oaks' victories over the Mount Royal Cougars this past weekend. In Friday's 7-4 win at Mount Royal College, Brett notched a goal and added two assists, while in the rematch at NAIT on Saturday, he scored two goals and added another assist while being named player of the game in the 4-2 win. "Brett had a solid weekend," said coach Terry Ballard. "He's a physical player and when he gets involved physically, he finds his way onto the scoreboard."

Adnan Hajdarevic
CUCA
Men's Basketball

Adnan Hajdarevic had an outstanding weekend of play, posting 63 points in two games over the NAIT Oaks. On Friday, Adnan helped Concordia to a two point 79-77 overtime win over the visiting Oaks by scoring an outstanding 38 points. Adnan continued with the hot hand pouring in 25 points along with 7 rebounds in Concordia's 72-51 win over the Oaks in a rematch Saturday night.

A fourth year student from Edmonton, Adnan is currently enrolled in Business Management at Concordia University College of Alberta.

For more information and the results from this past weekend, please visit:

www.acac.ab.ca

